

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

FIRST CYCLE, BACCALAUREATE

A THEOLOGY FOR PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL GROWTH IN A MULTICULTURAL COMMUNITY.

PRESENTATION

The Faculty of Theology of the Pontifical Athenaeum Regina Apostolorum is committed to the formation of Christian leaders - clergy and laity - through an innovative approach to teaching that integrates tradition and new teaching methods for a dynamic, flexible and personalized theological formation, supported by advanced technological tools to respond to the needs of the Church and contemporary society. The formation allows students to focus on specific theological areas according to their academic and pastoral needs. Active learning is encouraged through seminars, presentations, and interactive sessions, making students the protagonists of their own educational journey.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Seminarians and religious preparing for the priestly ministry, pastoral agents and all those who intend to continue their university studies in Theological Sciences.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Higher Secondary Education Diploma (High School Diploma) or Equivalent Title.

STRUCTURE

The training course is divided into five years (ten semesters), divided into a two-year introductory philosophical period and a three-year theological period.

The Philosophical Bachelor's obtained in an ecclesiastical Faculty replaces the philosophy courses of the First Cycle of the theological five-year period. Students in possession of the certificate of philosophical-theological studies carried out in a major seminary or in another approved higher institute, can be admitted to the First Cycle, taking into account the studies already completed and, depending on the case, also prescribing special courses and exams.

The use of digital platforms and multimedia materials enriches the study program and promotes a comprehensive theological education in touch with today's challenges.
