CALL FOR PAPERS

Marco Arosio Award - 14th Edition - 2024

Special Edition on Saint Thomas Aquinas, on the eighth centenary of his birth (1225-2025)

The late Professor Marco Arosio (d. 2009) is well known among Italian Medieval Philosophy scholars for his penetrating insight and depth. Each year the Chair dedicated to his memory awards the winner of an essay contest with a cash prize and the opportunity to publish the best essays in the Chair Essays publication series. The 2024 Special Edition Award is dedicated to the philosophical and theological topics in the works of Saint Thomas Aquinas and the prize will be €3,000. Contestants should submit unpublished or published works from 2022 onwards, together with a copy of a valid identity document and the duly completed application form. The essay must have an extension of at least 20 pages and a maximum of 40 pages (Times New Roman 12 font, line spacing 1). All essays must be composed in one of the following languages: English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish. Essays must be submitted by January 31, 2025, via e-mail (“pdf” and “Word”) to:

Marco Martorana at premio.ariosio@upra.org or marco.martorana@upra.org

Also two paper copies must be sent to:

Cattedra Marco Arosio di Altissimi Studi Medievali
Ateneo Pontificio Regina Apostolorum
Via degli Aldobrandeschi 190
Rome 00163, Italy

The Marco Arosio Chair will publish the winning paper as well as other works deemed to be of high quality and chosen by the Commission responsible for the Award. The winning essayist and the other contestants will be invited to present their work in Rome on April 10, 2025. For further information see www.upra.org, or please write to Marco Martorana at the above addresses.

Thank you for promoting culture and knowledge. Best regards.
