

Cattedra Marco Arosio di Alti Studi Medievali

CALL FOR PAPERS

Marco Arosio Award – Special Edition 2019

On the 10th Anniversary of the death of Professor Marco Arosio

The late Professor Marco Arosio (d. 2009) is well-known among Italian scholars of Medieval Philosophy for his penetrating insight and depth. Each year the Chair dedicated to his memory awards a cash prize to the winner of an essay contest and the opportunity to publish the best essays in the Chair Essays publication series. The 2019 Special Edition Award is dedicated to the study of life and works of Professor Marco Arosio and the prize will be €3,000. Contestants should submit unpublished works. The essay must extend to at least 40 pages (Times New Roman 12, line spacing 1).

All essays may be written in English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese or Spanish and submitted by January 31, 2019, via e-mail (both “pdf” and “Word”) to

Marco Martorana at premio.ariosio@upra.org or marco.martorana@upra.org

Two paper copies must be sent to

Cattedra Marco Arosio di Alti Studi Medievali
Ateneo Pontificio Regina Apostolorum
Via degli Aldobrandeschi 190
Rome 00163, Italy

The Marco Arosio Chair will publish the winning paper as well as other works deemed to be of high quality and chosen by the Commission responsible for the Award. The winning essayist and the other contestants will be invited to present their work in Rome on April 10, 2019. For further information please see www.upra.org, or write to Marco Martorana at the above e-mail addresses.

Thank you for your contribution to the promotion of culture and knowledge. Best regards.

Marco Martorana

Marco Arosio Award Coordinator