

Cattedra Marco Arosio di Alti Studi Medievali

CALL FOR PAPERS

Marco Arosio Award – 10th Anniversary (2020)

On the 700th Anniversary of Dante Alighieri's death (1321- 2021)

The late Professor Marco Arosio (d. 2009) is well known among Italian Medieval Philosophy scholars for his penetrating insight and depth. Each year the Chair dedicated to his memory awards the winner of an essay contest with a cash prize and the opportunity to publish the best essays in the Chair Essays publication series. The 2020 Special Edition Award is dedicated to the philosophical and theological topics that can be found in the works of Dante Alighieri and the prize will be €4,000.

Contestants should submit unpublished or published works from 2018 onwards, together with a copy of a valid identity document and the duly completed application form. The essay must have an extension of at least 40 pages. All essays must be composed in one of the following languages: English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish. Essays must be submitted by January 31, 2021, via e-mail (“pdf” or “word”) to:

Marco Martorana at premio.ariosio@upra.org or marco.martorana@upra.org

Two paper copies must be sent to:

Cattedra Marco Arosio di Alti Studi Medievali
Ateneo Pontificio Regina Apostolorum
Via degli Aldobrandeschi 190
Rome 00163, Italy

The Marco Arosio Chair will give the opportunity to publish the winning paper as well as other works deemed to be of high quality and chosen by the Commission responsible for the Award. The winning essayist and the other contestants will be invited to present their work in Rome on April 15, 2021. For further information see www.upra.org, or please write to Marco Martorana at the above addresses.

Thank you for promoting culture and knowledge. Best regards.

Marco Martorana

Marco Arosio Award Coordinator